Marc

Attached is the presentation from Thursday. I have also included the ounces of our product. These are still being finalized but I wanted to make sure you received this.

Lastly, as we discussed yesterday, stores, especially Walmart are not allowing individual Units to book locations. Everything must be reserved through their system (Spark) which there is an approval process for that TE already has national approval for.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need anything else.

Product	Ounces

Popping Corn	28oz
White Cheddar	6oz

Salted Caramel	11oz

Thank you,
